Managing Associate - Linklaters LLP

Linklaters

Alistair Hill

Alistair Hill is a Managing Associate in Linklaters' banking and finance group. He has a broad origination and restructuring practice ranging from bank/bond new money deals and refinancings through to the full spectrum of distressed restructuring transactions (both consensual and non-consensual).

Alistair has acted for senior creditors, mezzanine creditors, bondholders, debtors, pension fund trustees, loan portfolio sellers and buyers, servicers and special servicers and insolvency practitioners in respect of a wide variety of industries, jurisdictions, capital structures and debt investments.

He is the author of the Practical Law Guide to buying the business and assets of an insolvent company, a contributor of the "Defaults and Workouts: Restructuring Project Financings" chapter in the recently published book "International Project Finance: Law and Practice" (OUP) and a member of the Insolvency Lawyers' Association.

Alistair will present Inter-creditor issues – a new paradigm?
