

Managing Director of the Debt Advisory Group DC Advisory Partners

Conference Chairman

Jonathan Trower

Jonathan joined DC Advisory Partners (formerly Close Brothers Corporate Finance) in 1998 to set up the European Restructuring and Debt Advisory Group.

He was previously a Director of Hill Samuel and subsequently of Hambros.

Jonathan has had extensive experience of the debt markets over his banking career, having worked in corporate banking, loan syndication, acquisition finance and property finance. He ran a large team of workout bankers in the 1990-92 recession.

Since joining DC Advisory Partners Jonathan has advised on numerous restructuring and debt advisory transactions.

Clients that he has advised include Enterprise Inns plc, LogicaCMG, Virgin Money, Luxfer, Gala and TM Group Holdings. Private equity houses that he has worked for include Legal & General Ventures, Electra Partners Europe Ltd, Montagu Private Equity, Sun European Partners, Cinven and Candover.

After graduating from Cambridge University and three years as an army officer, Jonathan began his banking career in 1983.
